DELAECODE

Customer Proprietary Network Information Certification

I, V. Allan Samson, Vice President, Product and Marketing of Birch Telecom, Inc. ("Birch") have firsthand knowledge of the company's use of customer proprietary network information ("CPNI"). I certify that Birch does not use CPNI for marketing purposes other than as permitted in the Federal Communications Commission's rules set forth in section 64.2001 et seq. I relied on Attachment A in making this certification.

Customer Proprietary Network Information Certification
Attachment A

Birch does not use CPNI for any marketing purpose other than to market services to customers within the same category of service to which they already subscribe.

Birch may use CPNI as necessary for the following purposes:

- (1) To provide service to its customers;
- (2) To bill and collect for telecommunications services;
- (3) To protect its property rights; and
- (4) As required by law, such as in response to a validly issued subpoena.

Birch does not share CPNI with affiliates or third parties.
